

INCREASE STITCHES

Increases are made by working 2 or more stitches into one stitch. This example shows increasing 1 double crochet stitch within a row. Work 1 double crochet into the next stitch, then work another double crochet into the same stitch. One increase is now completed.