

BACK STITCH

A back-stitch seam can be used for joining knitted pieces together. For a hidden seam, hold the pieces with right sides together; for a seam featured on the outside, hold pieces with wrong sides together. The seam should be sewn one whole stitch in from the end of the row. Sew one stitch over every row or stitch. Always complete seaming before sewing in ends.

